INTRODUCTORY REPORT.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNMENT STATIST,
Melbourne, 1st November 1877.

SIR,

I have the honor, in continuation of the Australasian Statistics of the three previous years, to forward herewith similar tables for the year 1876.

2. A summary of these statistics, containing figures for each of the four years, was given with the Victorian Year-Book, 1876-7, published on the 9th ultimo. This summary was imperfect in regard to the colony of New Zealand, from which up to that time no direct return had been received ; also in regard to the colony of New South Wales, from the return furnished by which some important particulars were absent. Complete information having since been supplied by these colonies the missing figures have been added, and the document is republished at the commencement of this work in its amended form.

3. Correspondence with several of the colonies was necessary before some of the returns supplied could be made strictly comparable with those of Victoria. Uniformity, however, has at length been established in nearly all cases. The few slight differences which still exist are fully explained in footnotes.

4. It is much to be regretted that each year these statistics are so long delayed. The returns for Victoria are always ready some weeks before the end of the sixth month of the year, and if those of the other colonies were available at the same period the whole might easily be published by the 30th June. The early diffusion of information, which so intimately concerns each colony of the group, could not fail to be beneficial to all. At present all are made sufferers owing to the tardiness or inadvertence of a few.

5. Had full effect been given to the recommendations of the Statistical Conference, held in Tasmania in January 1875, each of the colonies would have been able to supply the desired particulars by the date named, for they would have collected and published them in the course of their ordinary returns. As a matter of fact, the recommendations referred to have been attended to but little or not at all in most of the colonies, and in none except Victoria have they been observed in their entirety. The consequence is that the important information herein published, simple as it is and essential, as it might be supposed to be, to the guidance of the Government and Legislature of the colony supplying it, has in most instances to be specially procured and compiled for these statistics—hence the delay.

6. In the last as in the previous issue of the Victorian Year-Book the figures of the Australasian Statistics have been extensively quoted, in order to show the position of the respective colonies in regard to each of the matters on which those statistics supply information, and it is intended that similar quotations shall form portion of the contents of future Year-Books. It would therefore only involve repetition if a digest of the Australasian Statistics were to be made on the occasion of their publication in the present shape.

7. With the exception of a slight change in the table of Electric Telegraphs, wherein the length of wire as well as that of line is for the first time shown, the tables now published are similar in form to those given in former issues of the Australasian Statistics.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

HENRY HEYLYN HAYTER,

Government Statist.

The Honorable the Chief Secretary,

&c., &c., &c.

<sup>1</sup> The amounts in this column are made up of Customs duties, exclusive of duties on the export of gold, drawbacks, &c. ; also of excise duties, including licenses imposed for revenue purposes ; stamps, other than those for fees of office ; legacy, succession, and probate duties ; property and income taxes ; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax ; but excluding fees, charges, and licenses for special services rendered.

<sup>2</sup> In calculating these amounts the average population of Victoria during the year ended 30th June 1876 (822,231) and the population of Queensland on the 1st January 1876 (181,288) have been taken. For the other colonies the mean populations shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

<sup>3</sup> According to the Treasurer's Finance Statement, which was laid before Parliament whilst this document was going through the press, the returns for Victoria during the year ended 30th June 1877 were as follow :—Revenue raised by taxation, £1,770,632 ; revenue not so raised (including recoups £210,139), £2,953,245 ; total revenue, £4,723,877 ; total expenditure, £4,358,096. The estimated mean population during the same period was 839,493 ; therefore the revenue per head was £5 12s. 6<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>d. ; the expenditure per head was £5 3s. 10d. ; and the taxation per head was £2 2s. 2d.

<sup>2</sup> On the 30th June 1877 the Public Debt of Victoria was the same as on the 31st December 1876, but the estimated population had increased to 849,021. The amount of indebtedness per head was thus reduced to £20 os. 9d.

<sup>3</sup> The "Accrued Sinking Funds" of New Zealand amounted at this date to £1,289,956. These consist of sums set aside annually for the liquidation of the Public Debt. A large portion of the money has been invested in the various debentures forming part of the debt, and thus so much of the debt may be said to have been already paid off. According to the Treasurer's Finance Statement the debt on the 30th June 1877 amounted to £20,618,111.

<sup>1</sup> Consisting of 173 miles of double and 546 miles of single line. Of the former 9¾ miles, and of the latter 7¼ miles, were the property of the Melbourne and Hobson's Bay United Railway Company. All the remainder belonged to the State.
<sup>2</sup> The number of miles of telegraph line in New South Wales was not returned, but only the miles of wire. The former has therefore been estimated according to the proportion the line bears to the wire in Victoria, Queensland, and South Australia.
<sup>3</sup> The number of miles of wire in Western Australia has not been returned. It has therefore been assumed to be equal to the number of miles of line.
<sup>4</sup> Includes a private line of railway 5½ miles in length, the property of the British and Tasmanian Charcoal Iron Company.
<sup>5</sup> Includes 122 miles of line or 133 miles of wire, the property of the Tasmanian Main Line Railway Company, but available for use by the public.

<sup>1</sup> The figures for Victoria do not include land of which the purchase was not completed, which at the end of 1876 amounted to 6,463,148 acres. The figures for New South Wales and South Australia do include such land, but the area has not been given. Portion of this land in the last-named colonies might revert to the Crown in consequence of non-fulfilment of conditions, &c.
<sup>2</sup> To compute the amounts in these columns the money realized has been divided by the sum of the acres granted and sold. The amounts therefore express the average price realized for all the land parted with, including not only that for which money was paid, but that which was granted without payment.
<sup>3</sup> In Victoria the land in process of alienation is included under this head. See note 1.
<sup>4</sup> Including an amount of £6,884,362 which represents the estimated balance due at the end of 1876 on land in process of alienation.
<sup>5</sup> Including balances of payments due for lands sold on credit, which amounted at the end of 1876 to £2,957,929.
* Where asterisks occur the information has not been furnished, or is incomplete.

TABLE X.—AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS, 1876-7.—LAND IN CULTIVATION.

*** The Agricultural Statistics in most of the colonies are collected in the months of February and March of each year. The present returns are for those months of 1877. In calculating the rates of tillage per head the population on the 31st December 1876 has been taken.

<sup>2</sup> In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—Victoria, 333,751 acres; Queensland, 7,291 acres; South Australia, 21,949 acres; Tasmania, 113,571 acres.

<sup>3</sup> In the returns of some of the colonies this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—Victoria, 84,159 acres; South Australia, 264,101 acres; Tasmania, 21,532 acres; New Zealand, 257,954 acres.

<sup>4</sup> Including 795 acres under beet, carrots, parsnips, turnips, and cabbage, which produced, 5,199 tons; 1,285 acres under mangel wurzel, which produced 15,386 tons; 1,479 acres under tobacco, which produced 14,413 cwt.; 1,993 acres under grass seeds, which produced 29,249 bushels, &c.

<sup>5</sup> Including 6,756 acres under sugar-cane, which produced 10,523,520 lbs. of sugar; 53 acres under arrowroot, which produced 86,458 lbs.; and 333 acres under tobacco, which produced 2,440 cwt.

<sup>6</sup> Including 13,690 acres under sugar-cane, 119 acres under arrowroot, 59 acres under tobacco, 573 acres under cotton, 345 acres under bananas, 151 acres under pineapples, &c.

<sup>7</sup> In the figures for New Zealand the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 2,152,885 acres, is not included in the land under green forage and in the total area under tillage, as in the other colonies. Were it so included it would bring the land under green forage up to 2,185,344 acres, the total land under tillage up to 2,940,709 acres, and the land under tillage per head of population up to 7'37 acres.
